HAZEL GREEN, KY.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1885

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. J. K. Hittner, of Georgetown, will preach in Hazel Green on Thursday night, June 4th.

Rev. James F. Ely will preach at the Chimney Top spring on Gillmore creek on the 4th Sunday in June.

Judge Lusk, of this place, thinks of entering the journalistic field, and has purchased a kit of mackeral.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Hon. D. S. Godsey, of this place, last Monday sold a pair of boys' old shoes to S. M. Tuttle, of Campbell, for $15, equal to cash.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Rev. E. P. Mickel preached at the Pines, last Sunday, and informs us that he will hereafter hold service every 2nd Sunday at 3 o'clock, p. m.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgia, pains in the back and side, etc., ever produced. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

There will be an election of school trustees next Saturday, and it is hoped that those elected may be men who have the education of the masses at heart—good men and true.

Dr. F. M. Thomas returned from Lee county Monday evening last, whither he had been in attendance at the bedside of his mother. He reports her not much better, and after shaping his business here yesterday, left in the evening to give her his attention.

About 25 parties have notified us that they will be here on Wednesday next with stock to sell. From the indications now, it appears that we are to have not less than 1000 to 1500 head of cattle on the market, besides horses, mules, etc., with buyers from below in large force.

J. L. Smock, representing the house of Davis, Mallory & Co., Louisville, was here yesterday. He came from the direction of Mt. Sterling, and reports sales at Jeffersonville, Cornwell, Frenchburg, Maytown and Estill. Here he did quite well considering that most of our merchants were pretty well stocked.

Conroy & Shore, of Mt. Sterling, carriage builders, dealers in second-hand vehicles, repairers and sign-painters, have a card in our issue to-day, and if you want a buckboard or a second-hand buggy, their's is the place to buy. And if it is a sign you want, you will "shore get a right one" if you get John Shore to paint it for you.

Have you seen it? We mean the corn-sheller which Caskey & Pieratt have on sale. It is a hand-sheller, and one man can, with ease, shell from 4 to 7 bushels of corn per hour with it, without tearing his hands or becoming tired in his arm. They cost the trivial sum of $1, and every farmer or farmer's son who has corn to shell, should call and secure one.

We carelessly failed last week, in our notice of the high school entertainments, to note the fact that much was due to the kind assistance in singing and piano performance, by Miss Lucinda Kast, of Frenchburg, and the elegant bass furnished by Geo. H. McClain, of this place. We hope they will not feel slighted, but attribute the failure to a press of business with us.

Dr. J. M. Kash, of this place, was one day last week sawing something with a hand saw, when it "jumped the track" and cut away about one-half of his left thumb, which is now causing him much pain. The doctor seems, in fact, to be suffering the plagues of Job, for in addition to the above wound, he now has a much inflamed eye. He has our sympathy in his afflictions.

Harmon Swango, near this place, last Saturday drove his wagon over a fine colt of one of the mares hitched to the wagon, and broke its leg. The colt was about 10 days old, and the bone being tender, Mr. Swango thinks he can save it without damage to the broken limb. It is now in a fair way to come out all right. The colt was lying under the wagon when he started with-out seeing it, hence the accident.

We inadvertently failed to notice, in our last week's issue, the advertisement of J. T. Breen & Son, wholesale druggists, Mt. Sterling. They buy largely of all kinds of herbs and roots used for medicinal purposes, and therefore in the section would do well to sell such things to them. They are also manufacturers of Breen's Liniment, from which there is not a more powerful panacea for pain. It relieves almost instantly, and comes cheap.

There is some rivalry between Cincinnati and Louisville for the mountain trade, and we are glad to note the fact. It indicates that our section is a solid one financially and commercially. In short, that our merchants take rank with those of any other section, in point of quantity and quality of goods and ability to pay for them when the time comes to do so. Both cities would do well to fill the advertising columns of THE HERALD with their business cards, if they wish a powerful lever power to assist them in securing this trade.

JAMES DENNIS.

A Suggestion for Additional Counsel.

["Citizen" in Crawfordville (Ind.) Journal.]

The fact that there prevails the greatest doubt in regard to the guilt of James Dennis throughout the county cannot be denied. The people are satisfied that notwithstanding the impartial and legal manner in which the trial was conducted that Dennis has not had a fair chance. Judge Britton ruled wisely and according to law; the jury no doubt gave a conscientious verdict on the evidence as it was presented to them, but the fact that the prosecuting attorneys were old experienced lawyers and overpowered the defense is the true cause of the present state of uncertainty. Messrs. Thornton and Doty are two able and promising young lawyers, and did all they possibly could for their unfortunate client, but it is not less true, and is casting no reflection on them to say that they were unable to cope with the powerful combination of legal talent that was opposed to them, composed of Paul & Humphries, M. D. White and A. E. Anderson. Now this case is about to go to the supreme court and with the same inevitable prosecution aided by the state attorney general, there is little prospect of Dennis getting a new trial. The people of this county are not ready to see Dennis hung, and we are satisfied that every man, woman and child is ready to contribute a mite toward securing an experienced lawyer to assist in presenting his case before the supreme court. The writer is satisfied of this. Give him a fair trial and if he be found guilty, the people will be satisfied to see him hanged. The only way to give him a fair trial is to provide him counsel equal to the prosecution. Dennis may be guilty but it has not been proved; the whole theory of his guilt rests on the word of the self-confessed criminal John Coffee. With their perfect knowledge of the case we believe the lawyers who prosecuted him would be unwilling to sign his death warrant, and if they are in doubt who can be certain of his guilt. CRIZZEN.

All that is necessary to execute the above suggestion, we believe, is for some of those who believe in Dennis' innocence, to start a subscription paper and give the people an opportunity to show their faith by their works.—Ind. Journal.

Honors Conferred.

Last week we gave an extended notice of the commencement exercises of the Hazel Green high school, and the press of other local matter would permit, but the names of those receiving medals were unavoidably crowded out. The list is as follows:

Mrs. Mary Nickell, most advanced lady student.

Kelly B. Day, most advanced of the young men.

Jasper A. Cox, greatest progress in study.

J. Miles Little, greatest progress in speaking.

James H. Swango, proficiency in German.

Harry F. Deane, proficiency in Latin.

Charlie S. Swango and Miss Belle Adams, greatest progress and proficiency in the intermediate class.

Miss Lillie Day, Carl Mize and Willie Day, greatest progress and proficiency in the primary class.

Robt. Greenwade, merit, progress and perseverance.

Prof. Hays and his wife are well qualified and admirably fitted for the work of imparting instruction. The examination showed the faithfulness, zeal and hard work which have been used at our school-rooms during the past year, and the progress which has been made is the best possible diploma of efficiency which any teacher could receive.

We expect a teacher to do honest work, but the conscientious attention that Prof. Hays has given to every detail of his arduous profession, deserves our praise while it also calls forth our admiration.

But if the examinations were a credit to the professor, none the less did the entertainments reflect honor upon his estimable companion. It was her training in speaking, in acting, in singing and in playing, that brought out the talent of our young folks in such an admirable manner.

Good examinations and pleasant entertainments do not grow shallow, but blacken, like ryes, on any bramble in the woods, but like the large and luscious strawberries from the garden, they are the product of good soil and careful, skillful cultivation. Whatever garden the professor and his wife may tend, during the coming year, we trust that good soil and favorable seasons may enable them to gather as good a crop of useful fruits and beautiful flowers as we have seen exhibited at our recent commencement.

Drury S. Godsey.

[Sentinel-Democrat.]

The democratic convention at Frenchburg last Friday nominated D. S. Godsey, of Hazel Green, for representative in the district composed of the counties of Wolfe, Menifee, Powell and Montgomery, to be voted for at the ensuing August election.

Mr. Godsey had no opposition in the convention. Our readers have already been informed that he is a good man, and well qualified for the office. It now becomes the duty of the democrats of the district to go to the polls on the first Monday in August and vote for Mr. Godsey. In his position in the person of Dr. F. M. Thomas, also of Hazel Green, but it is not so formidable as to be alarming, and nothing short of culpable negligence on the part of the democratic voters will prevent him (Godsey) from securing a large majority of the votes of the district.

Personal Paragraphs.

Ex-sheriff Steve Tutt was in town last Monday.

Thos. K. Tutt, Jr., of Spradling, was in town Saturday last.

Deputy Sheriff, John Centers was in Hazel Green on Saturday.

Judge Geo. W. Carson, of Lacy creek, was in town last Saturday.

Isom Long, of Sellers, Morgan county, was in town on Saturday last.

A. M. Nickell, a prominent merchant of Daysborough, was in to see us, Monday.

Alex Nickell, from the rural precinct of Daysborough, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Ambrose Nickell, of Daysborough, visiting relatives at Prestonsburg, Floyd county.

Dr. John A. Taulbee, of Jackson, was visiting his brother, Dr. Breck Taulbee, at this place, last week.

Miss Ella J. Johnson, who has been confined to her room by illness since May 21st, is now, we are glad to state, much better.

Dr. Breck Taulbee and family left yesterday afternoon for a week's visit to his brother, Hon. Wm. Pres. Taulbee, of Sellersville.

Judge G. B. Swango is on the bench at Campbell this week. County court convened Monday, and was succeeded by quarterly court yesterday.

A. K. Wilson, of Breathitt county, passed through town yesterday on his return from Kansas and Missouri, where he has been sojourning for the past year.

Misses Maggie Clifford and Emma Hutton, and Mrs. Mary J. Huton, of Harrison county, who were visiting the family of Wm. Children, at this place, and took in the commencement exercises of our high school, left on Sunday for a visit to the family of H. D. Spradling, at Spradling, Ky.

Thos. Spradling, of Harrison county, who is here for the benefit of the water of Swango spring, informs us that he feels much stronger and better every way than when he came. He is now visiting the family of his uncle, H. D. Spradling, but is not so far removed but that he can derive the benefits of the spring, still.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

GILMORE, MAY 27.

We will not have much wheat this year, but there is a good prospect for fruit and mast.

Farmers are all about done planting corn and some have commenced working it the first way, it having come up very well.

We had quite a sensational little trial at this place on the 25th inst., before his honor, Squire A. J. Linden. It will be remembered that on or about the 15th some long, lean, lank, lay out paid Joe P. Rose's corn-crib a flying visit, and got it some by James H. Vest and Jack Miller on the 23d inst., and brought to justice together with two others, who had formerly been captured. The parties turned out to be James Campbell, James Salley and George W. Dunn. Dunn was apparently not so guilty as the others, and fearing that he would go to jail, concluded to squeal, which he did, and was released. He swore that he stayed at James Campbell's on the night the corn was stolen, and that Campbell and James Salley went away that night and returned about daylight with some corn, which they said they got at Joe Rose's. The matter was a mystery at first, and very likely would have remained so, had it not been for David Bell, who happened to be at Allison Rose's the next day, when Sarah Campbell, wife of the accused, came to mill, and having heard of the theft, secured a sample of her corn, knowing them to be suspicious characters. This led to the detection and apprehension. There was quite a comical incident in the cross-examination of a witness at the trial, which I withhold on Rose's account, but refer the editor to Judge Kash for the facts. Campbell and Salley were bound over in the sum of $100 each, in default of which they were sent to jail. Campbell said Dunn came to his house while he lived in West Virginia and advised him to move back to this country as times were so hard there, telling him there was plenty of corn raised here, and that Joe Rose had a large crib full of pretty white corn, with a hole in the end of the crib to get it out, saying he (Dunn) had been getting his corn there. He said Dunn had turned against him and lied on him, but that now he had to go to jail, but I think that is the place for all such. The ball and chain, and a little hard work on the streets would be beneficial both ways.

UNCLE REMUS.

LACY CREEK, JUNE 1.

Prof. J. Z. Hane, of Salem, Grassy creek, paid us a flying visit Sunday.

Rev. G. G. Ragan held quite an interesting meeting here, Sunday, with 3 additions to the church.

John B. Hollan and his sister, Miss Caroline, of Lane, were the guests of Mrs. D. B. Rose, last Sunday.

Rev. W. L. Stamper, of Maytown, will preach at the Hazel Green school-house the first Sunday in June, at 3 o'clock, p. m.

S. W. Cecil, of Grassy creek, passed through here Sunday, en route home from Perry county, where he had been on business.

Gregory Hall, of Bear Pen creek, was visiting his many friends here last week. He is very old but we are glad to say that he is quite hale and hearty for a man of his age.

J. M. Rose spent a few days last week on Holly creek. He says there was a tide in the river and the timber men were very busy engaged in rafting logs to start to Frankfort.

We wish to state that the attempt to kill R. N. Rose was on Tuesday night, May 5th, instead of Monday night, May 4th. It being a mistake on my part I deem it necessary to correct it, so that if the accused party wants to prove his whereabouts let him claim this up according to the time when the attempt was made, and all will be well.

JAY.

MORGAN COUNTY.

GRASSY CREEK, JUNE 1.

Dr. J. D. Killgore, of this place, is in very bad health.

S. W. Havens' daughter, who was recently bitten by a copperhead snake, is likely to recover. Apple brandy is the remedy used.

Miss Jennie Yocum and 2 of L. G. Murphy's daughters, 3 charming belles of Blackwater, were visiting friends and relatives on this creek, last week.

Wm. Havens, of this creek, has 2 cows that give 10 gallons of milk per day. Any person doubting this statement can be convinced by calling at Squire's residence at milking-time.

J. A. C. Murphy, (Dink), has a pair of yearling calves for sale. He has been offered $60 in cash; he also has 2 heifer calves, the same age; that he has refused $50 for. Who can beat that for calves in this country?

Dr. David Halsey, of this creek, who has had quite an extensive practice in this room for some time on account of ill health, is we are glad to say to his many friends, able to be out again.

There has been quite a number of sheep killed in this section by dogs, in the last few days. It would be a fine thing for the people if the dogs of this section would do like Murphy's dogs; shake a skunk and go off and die; and then not do like Murphy's pup, come to life again, but stay dead forever.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt, of Hazel Green, according to previous arrangement, preached at the old Grassy church, Saturday and Sunday. There was quite a large audience Sunday, and profound attention was given while the sermon was being delivered. At the writing (Monday) there has been 15 additions to the church. Brother Pieratt is the right man in the right place. We hope the good work may go on.

I notice in last week's HERALD an article from Maytown, signed "Duster," concerning Jerry M. Maguire, being a stalling candidate for matrimonial honors, and that he has made a declaration of love to every girl in the country, etc. Being personally acquainted with the young gentleman (Jerry) I feel it my duty to correct the statement. I know of several young ladies who would not have let him pass, had he made this declaration of love to them. One young lady called my attention to the statement, herself, saying it was incorrect, for she knew Jerry would not lie, and she said he had never made any such declaration to her; if he had he would have been a "goner." So, I am satisfied "Duster" is mistaken, and I hope he will seek his shoes and dust his clothes and be careful how he writes about a Grassy boy, from now on.

ON THE WING.

MAYTOWN, MAY 28.

Hon. W. P. Taulbee passed through town last Sunday en route to Louisville.

Charley Little, of Jackson, stopped in town last week on his return from Frankfort.

D. D. Landsaw passed through town last week on his way to Cincinnati to buy goods.

"Honest Tom" wants to know why C. W. Clark, of this place, makes so many protracted visits to the "Grassy fork" of Blackwater?

Lewis Hayes, clerk of Knott county, passed through town last week, en route home from Louisville, whither he had been to purchase a stock of goods.

George McCormick, of Spencer, Montgomery county, was up last week, and sold a tract of land on the Chapel branch, Wolfe county, to Wm. McNabb for $200.

John H. Pieratt, "the mountain auctioneer" of Hazel Green, was in town today, shaking hands with old friends. John is always a welcome guest at Maytown.

Charley Wilson, Henry Reese, Ed. Brown, and Green Clay of Mt. Sterling, and Arch Children of Long Branch, passed through town last Wednesday, on their way to the Kentucky river on a fishing expedition.

W. T. Day, Thos. M. Canney and Jno. Cox started this morning to Magoffin county, in search of Golden Howard, charged with murder in Montgomery county. It is reported that Howard has been hiding away in the hills of Magoffin for some time.

The monthly stock sales at Hazel Green, set on foot by her far-seeing and thorough-going business men, promises to be a rich thing to stock dealers in Eastern Kentucky. This part of Morgan county will doubtless have on the market a lot of fine stock, on Wednesday, June 10; and, he it remembered, our people always have the best.

The people here are loud in their praise of the efforts of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD for setting on foot and consummating an arrangement by which we are to have stage line from Rothwell to Hazel Green. Thos. P. Collinsworth, the contractor, is known to be a good, honest business man. We have long felt the need of an enterprise of this kind, and we are now willing to contribute whatever we can to its success. We believe that with the indefatigable Collinsworth at its head, and the travel that there is between Hazel Green and Rothwell, the enterprise will be a remunerative one.

DUSTER.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, MAY 29.

The residence of Wm. Daugherty burned recently; loss about $400.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shubert, of Montgomery county, is visiting Mrs. Vanarsdell, and Miss Belle Adams, of Hazel Green, is visiting Mrs. Power.

A detachment of 9 of Knott county's warriors passed through here Thursday on their way to the seat of war, under the leadership of Dolph Draughn. They were a formidable looking set of fellows, armed with repeating rifles and pistols. It seems as if Gov. J. Proctor will have to send some of his boys into the territory of his namesake to restore order.

Hon. W. P. Taulbee was last night a guest of the Palace hotel, where he was besieged by his admirers and friends until a late hour. He is such a favorite here that we are all glad to see him and listen to his musical voice in conversation. The young folks having assembled at the courthouse for the purpose of singing, he responded to a call, and preached a very excellent sermon. He did another very handsome thing by paying a liberal donation to our college building. Many thanks, Bro. T.

I. M. V.

POWELL COUNTY.

MERRILL, MAY 27.

Wheat in this neighborhood will be about a half crop.

The farmers in this section are plowing their corn for the first time.

Everywhere upon the banks of Red give there can be seen fishermen tempting the finny tribe.

Mitchell Cole and James Hambleton and Misses Rosa and Nannie Thacker, of Estill county, were visiting at R. C. Mansfield's last week.

The Kentucky Union railroad company are pushing the laying of their track as fast as possible, and they say the cars will be running to Clay City by the 30th. They are now running to within a mile of that place.

DUDLEY.

Joseph H. Amyx has just returned from Martinsburg, and reports that the Elliott circuit court was in session, Judge Cooper on the bench. He told us of the following convictions: Elizabeth Collins, barn burning, 1 year in the penitentiary; Jno. Adkins, shooting of Araby Lewis with intent to kill, 5 years; James Whit, shooting Harrison Adkins with intent to kill, 1 year; Allen Porter, rape, 2 years; Wm. Allen, shooting John Moore with intent to kill, 2 years. He says that Judge Cooper sent a good many of the witnesses to jail, and remarked that he was determined to try all cases; that he did not propose to postpone a case for want of a witness, and would therefore make sure of having them at the right time, by putting them where he could find them.

The advertisement of H. D. Spradling & Son's mill appears in our paper to-day. Their flouring machinery was put up by Ed. Damon, of the Richmond mill works, and is doubtless the best in the mountains. Anyhow, we hear it stated that they make the best flour ever manufactured in the mountains. Mine host, John Pieratt, bought largely of it during the winter, and says it is as good as any imported flour. The firm have also a fine carding machine in operation, run by G. W. Cox, an old and experienced carder who will render satisfaction in all cases.

Senator Taulbee, living in Morgan county, about 6 miles east of Hazel Green, informs us that he has about 300 apple and pear trees which he thinks will yield abundantly. He has also taken some pains to investigate the prospect for mast next fall, and thinks the outlook as favorable as any year in the last decade. He thinks we will undoubtedly have a plentiful fur. He is an old farmer and a gentleman whose opinion in such matters is worth recording on all matters pertaining to our future agricultural and horticultural prospects.

There is a move on foot to have the postoffice known as Sellers, in Morgan county, changed from its present location on Grassy, to the house of Isom Long which we understand is a more populous neighborhood and altogether a more convenient place for it. The petitioners should forward their petition to Hon. W. P. Taulbee, who will doubtless attend to the matter at once. The postoffice is now kept by John Amyx, who, we learn, is ready to resign if it will be an accommodation to the people who wish the office removed.

Rev. W. B. Cooper, of Jackson, spent Sunday last in Hazel Green, and delighted the people of our town with a splendid sermon on Sunday night. Early Monday morning he went on his way, being en route to Lexington, whither he goes in the interest of the Presbyterian church at Jackson. Our people all have a fondness for Mr. Cooper, regardless of denomination, and always turn out en masse to hear him. He will doubtless call here on his way back and again preach to us.

The physicians of the 13th judicial district are hereby notified that the Eastern Kentucky medical association will convene in the town of Frenchburg on Friday, the 19th of June, 1885, at 9 o'clock a. m. Also, the board of examiners will hold their annual meeting at the same time and place on the 20th.
